Chapter 187

The Disputed Country of Duhana.

Situated in the southeastern part of Africa, in actuality, it is a vassal state of the neighbouring Commonwealth of Galboa.

Colonel Zasid Turus, a member of the Galboan Army, is its officially designated chief executive.

DUHANA

GALBOA

Correction: His name has finally been revealed as being spelled "Zasid" instead of "Zashid" in this volume.

GALBOA

Duhana is a disputed country that has not been recognized internationally as being a formal nation.

Consequently, international laws have not been adopted within this disputed country.

Imposing extensive forced evictions of natives and movement of colored people, has resulted in the creation of this kind of twisted region.

Even now, unresolved policies of extreme racial segregation are being carried out within the country.

Abuse of this situation has made Duhana into a breeding ground for black market operations, with profits flowing into the Commonwealth of Galboa.

Affirmative. Well then, proceed as planned.

But if we don't secure our escape routes...

If we're tightly enveloped, we'll absolutely lose!

Because I have no doubt that in order to prevent us from escaping, he will completely obstruct our escape routes.

I understand that our enemy is superior.

That's why, we can't just be quiet and stay in the same place.

Chapter 189

...You're the real deal, hm..?

There's a mountain village nearby. I'll go take a look and scout out the state of affairs in the vicinity.

.....

ガヲッ

I'll go too.

We're the only ones fit to scout here, right?

No rush, no rush.

Well, let's be quick.

Dai, I'm borrowing Bucephalus.

Ehhh..?! That's-

Ah, yeah.

Please be careful!

It's treasure for this area.

They probably wouldn't leave behind stuff like that old truck that looks like it still runs, right?

I can really see that...

...I see...

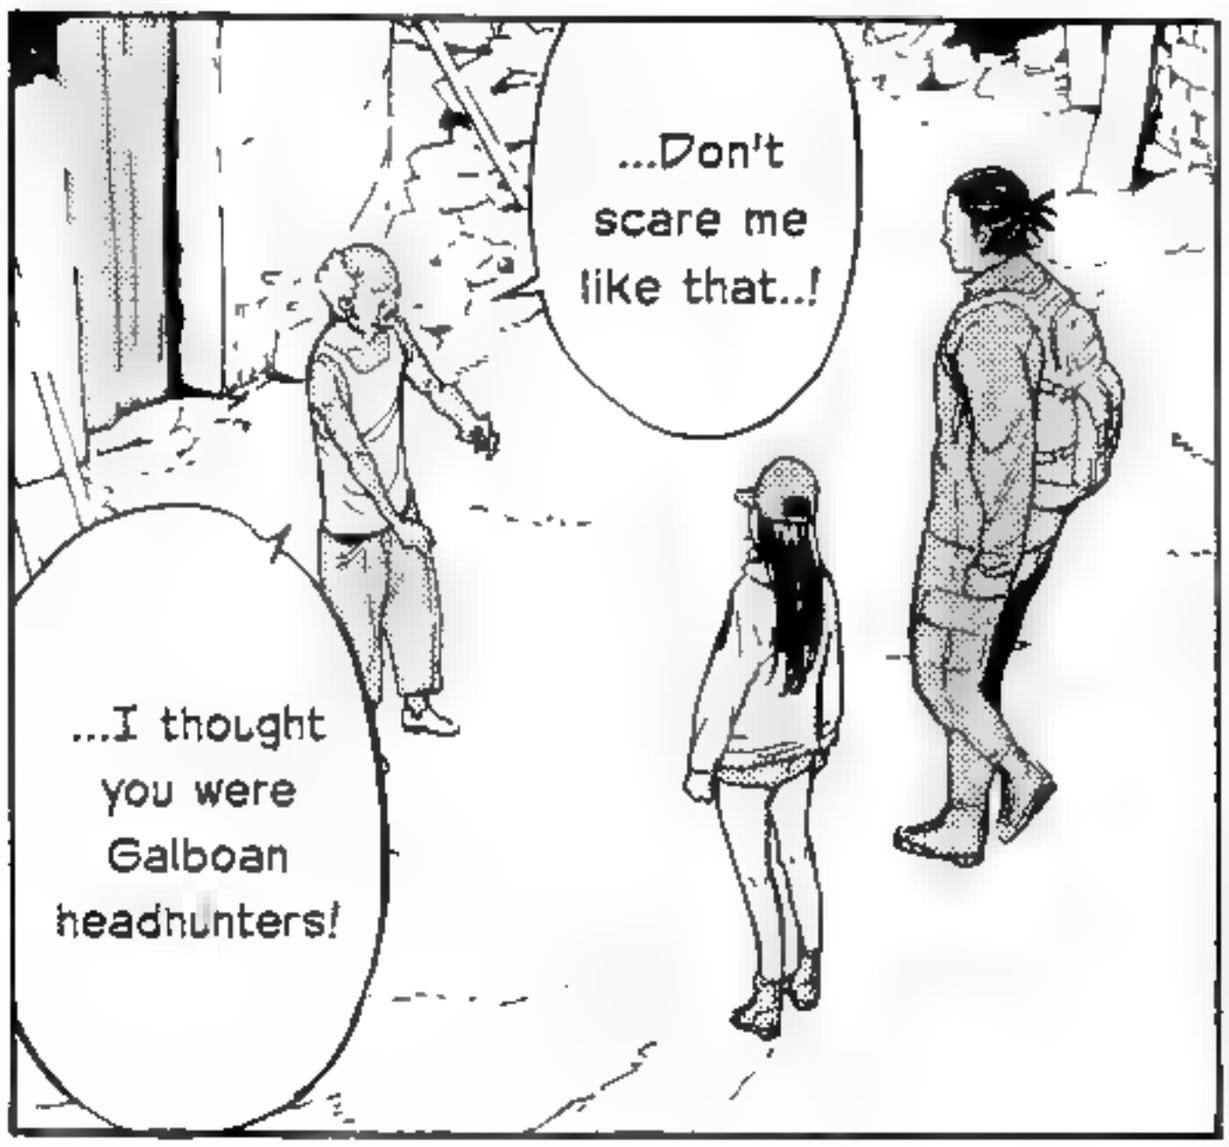
But almost half of the houses here haven't been tended to...

...I didn't expect there to be no one here...

...I can't see anyone...

The roofs that were built are falling down.
No doubt, there has to be a reason for its de-population.

Yo!



...Don't scare me like that..!
...I thought you were Galboan headhunters!

Eek?!

Tourists again, in a place like this?

..."Head-hunters"?

My bad.

Gaiboan soldiers took every single man in this area to construct facilities or something, so there's no one left.

It's not going to be a market-place.

If this area already has the essentials, then I think I'll ask for future reference!

You don't say! I was thinking I'd start peddling, but...

It seems there's large-scale construction being done there.

They haven't returned for over half a year.

There's a plateau on the other side of that mountain.

"Facili-ties"?

I heard that, of the neighborhood's people, practically all of the men who could work had been taken away

...So it's Gido Turus then...

Although they wanted to resist, with Gido-same in charge, nobody could disobey

.....

Correction: His name has finally been revealed as being spelled "Gido" instead of "Guido" in this volume

Who else came by?

Aside from that, you said "again", right?

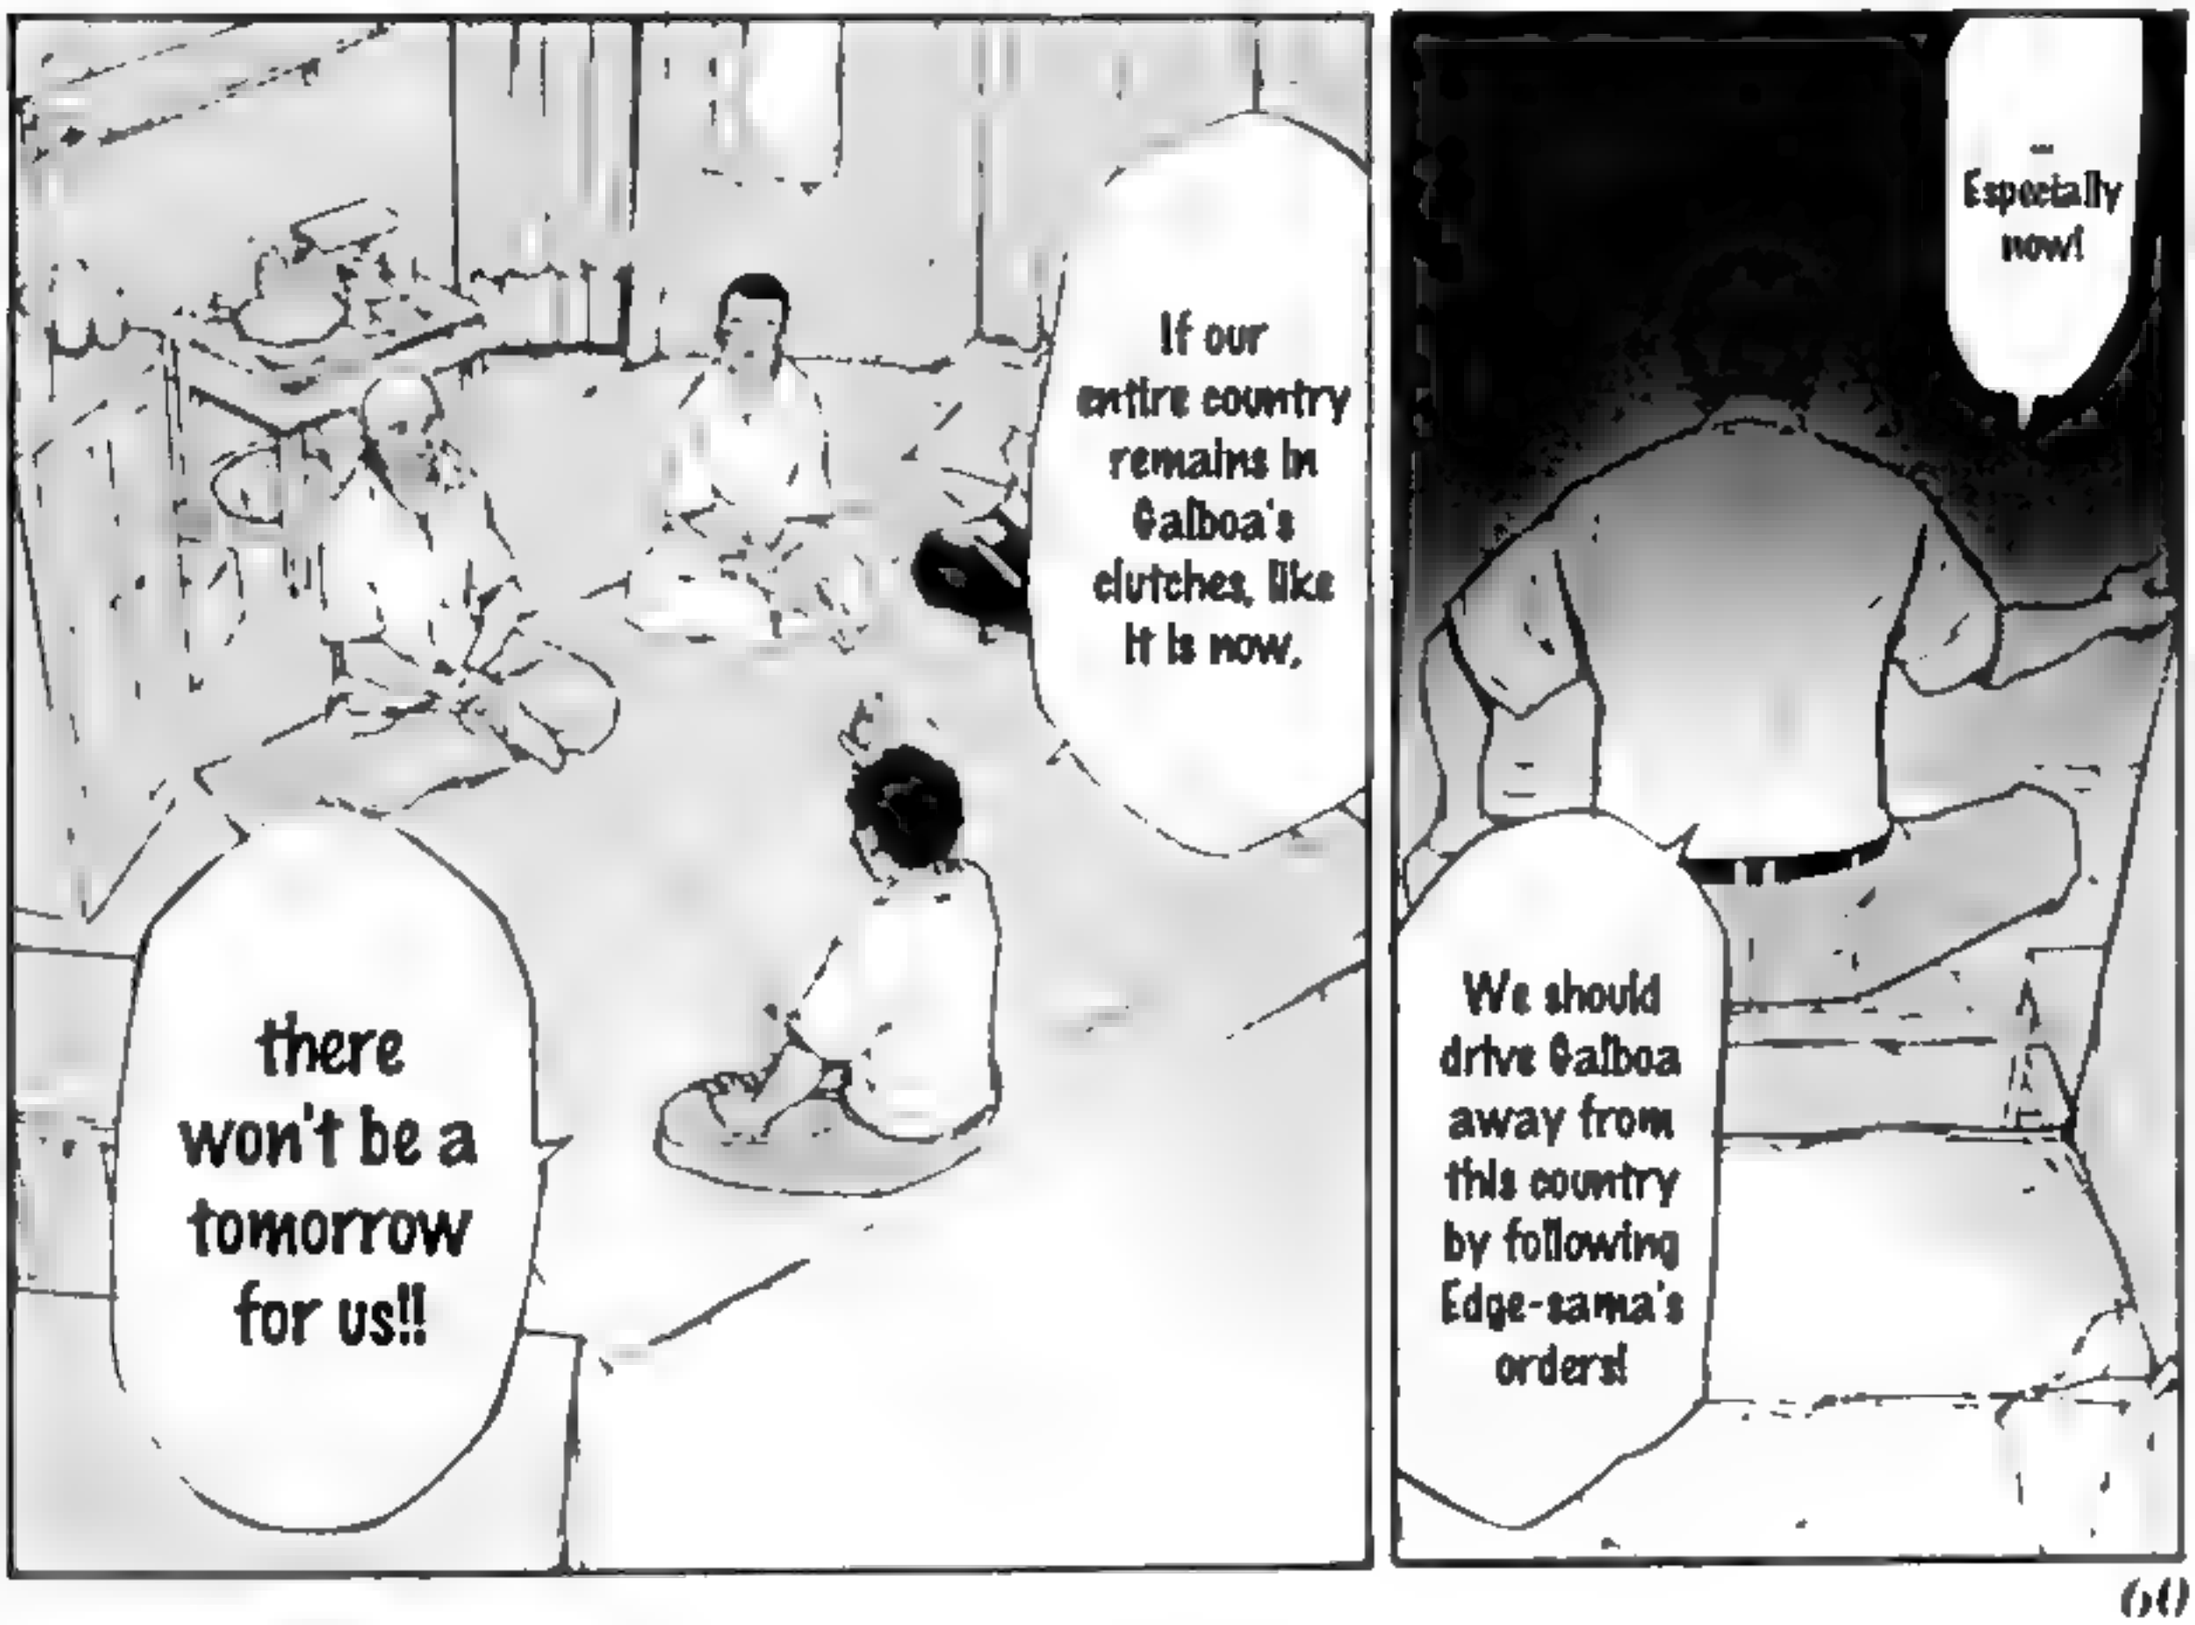
They visited the chief's home not long ago!



If our entire country remains in Galboa's clutches, like it is now, there won't be a tomorrow for us!!
...Especially now!
We should drive Galboa away from this country by following Edge-sama's orders!

But... that would mean we would be rebelling against Zasid-sama!

You're wrong!

Edge-sama plans to, if the revolution is successful, welcome Zasid-sama as a ruler!

...Hm, hmm...

means he stood up for our sake!!

Just getting rid of Galboa's presence from this country,

.....

...This, this is... ...A pretty fascinating talk, huh..?

Leave it to me!

Okay, go tell everyone about it then!

Who's the one pulling the strings behind that speech just now?

What are you inspiring the citizens to do, and what are you scheming?

AUGH-

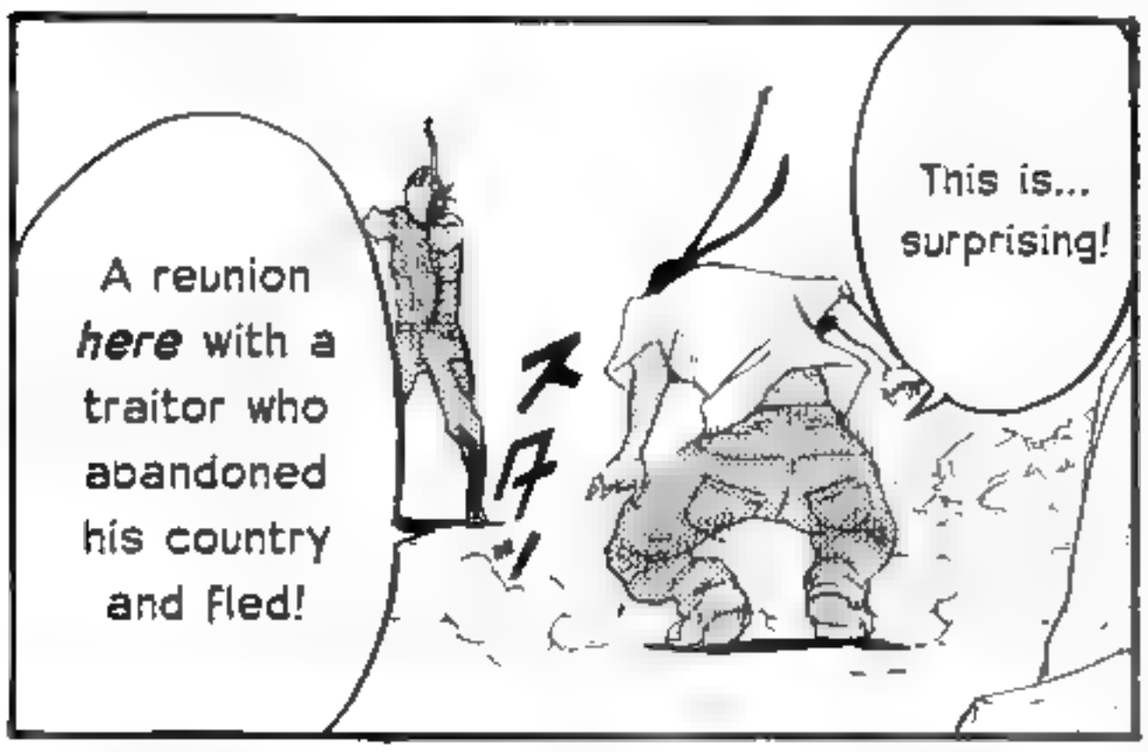
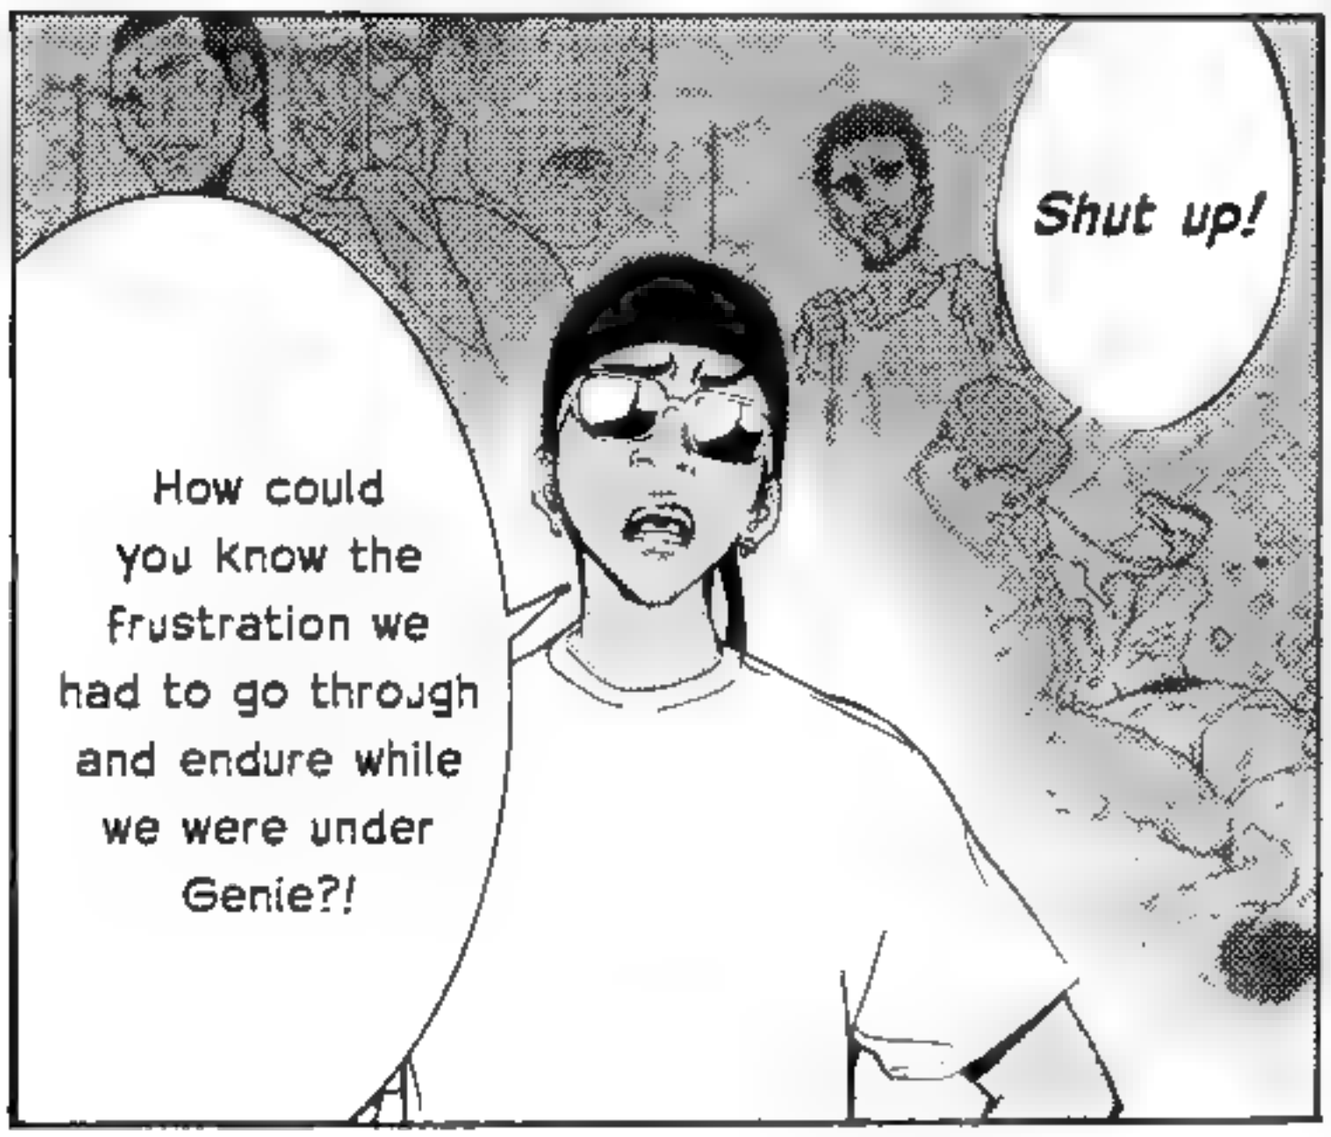
TL Note: The exact name he uses is "Borudora", which is short for "Bolt Driver".





You're wrong! I was just searching for a different method outside the country!
My coming back was to gather intel and to fulfill another duty!

I'M GONNA KILL YOU.

You can die on the soil of your motherland. It's quite considerate for a traitor's end, don't 'cha think?

When did he throw those?!

I didn't even realize!

However, you can't expect us to always be at the same level, you know.
We've been powering up since then!
It's pathetic, but we tolerate guns.

...Looks like you've improved considerably ...

Well that's disappointing You "got away" by using a rock, huh?

...."When necessary, throw it more gently."...

...I see. So it's Hijikata Mamoru then...

I asked about the secret from someone who couldn't see with his eyes

He said the amount of data conveyed through sound is a lot more than one would imagine!

"It's not about cutting the wind. It's about letting it ride in it."

Nitori: There's wind in a place like this?

Sounds become difficult to emit as well, which makes it difficult for the enemy to intercept.

I'll make you taste the highest level of technique that I've attained!

I also studied how capture strategies are devised from a powerful foe.

it would not have resulted in a fatal wound.

Guess I'll ask.

Why'd you come back? Depending on how you reply, I'll really have to kill you.

Huh?

However,

I came back for the sake of capturing Hijikata Mamoru.

I've changed my mind.

If all goes well, you could even expect results that coincide with your request.

But of course.

We would be deviating from the original plan though...

Sorry for the delayed release.

Chapter 190 (this one) has been completed since the end of March but I didn't release it until now.

Some things have been happening in my life which have drastically changed the pace at which I translate.

I can't guarantee future results, but I am currently translating Chapter 191 and will try to get it out some time soon to make up for the one month delay.

I'd like people to chat with on a regular basis to help me stay in the mood and give me a reason to continue, so if you can do at least that, please visit our IRC:

Chapter 191

Ehh? You can understand it?

...you showed that with artistic expression, Gido?

...I presume ...

...So he lost interest ...

and now even my initial concept is lost.

Unfortunately, during its creation, the "reds" of the flames became too remarkable,

I'm here to consult with you about something regarding that!

This is an order by the old man!

To begin with, this sorta job should've been the duty of that honours kid, Edge!

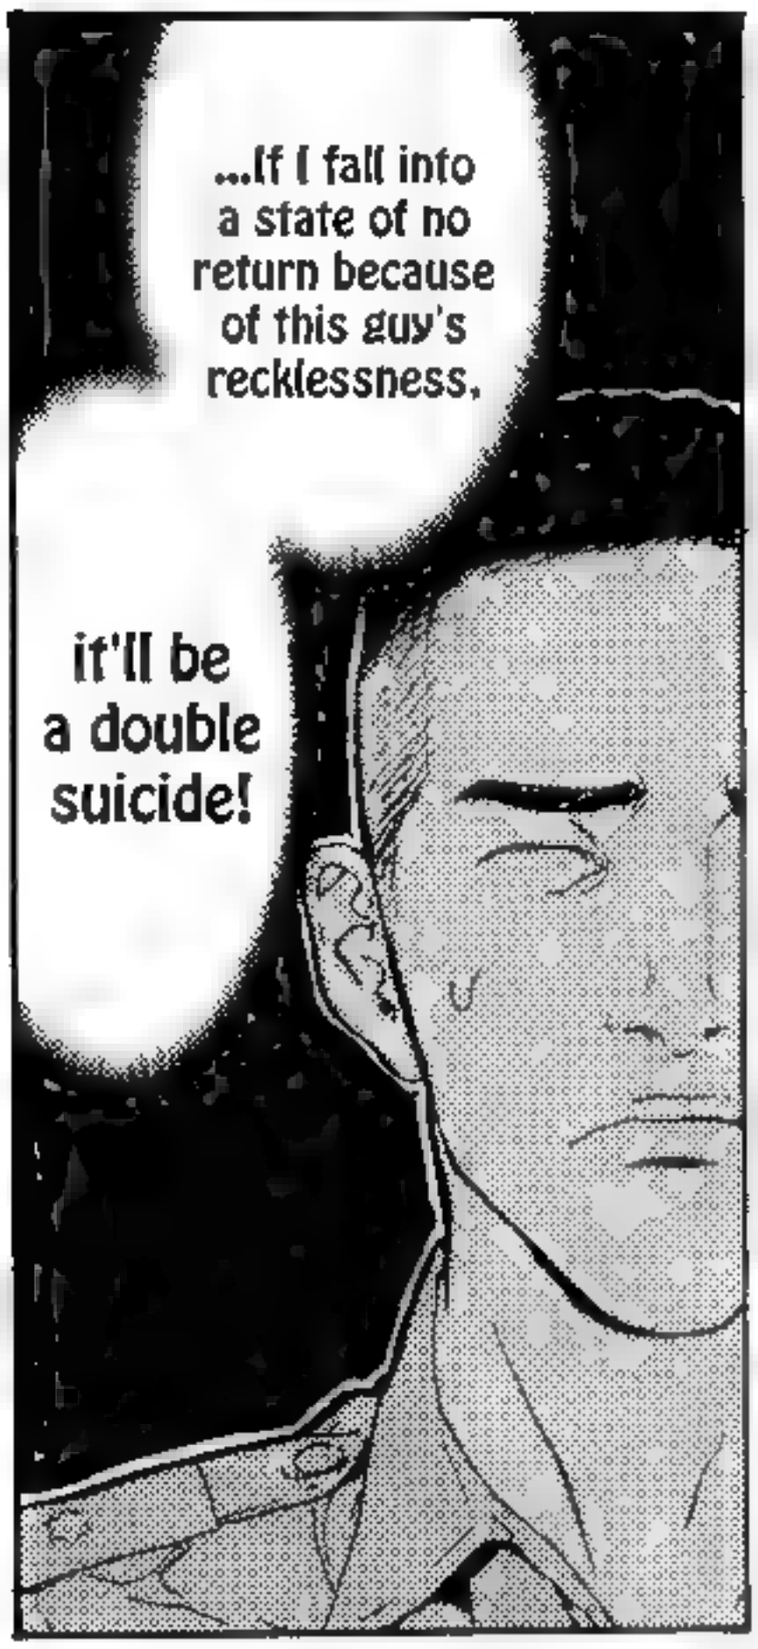
This remote countryside ain't got nothin' else for me to do. I blame the old man too!

Since he bloody sentenced me to a place like this!

...Uh huh...

You can't refuse us!

The fact that he's not afraid of the old man to such an extent...
...The problem with this guy is likely that he has a loose screw in his head.



...If I fall into a state of no return because of this guy's recklessness, it'll be a double suicide!

...There's nothing worthwhile in following that dude's orders, you know...

Their defenses are flawless as well. Our military strength is overwhelmingly insufficient!

What a large establish-ment...

……

Do we have enough gunpowder on hand? Where can we efficiently bomb them?

Knowing the circumstances, what sort of devices should I bring? My problems boil down to ones like those.

You seem relaxed.

...I'm an explosives expert. My problems are neither the size of a facility nor the extent of its defenses.

We don't have that sorta time!

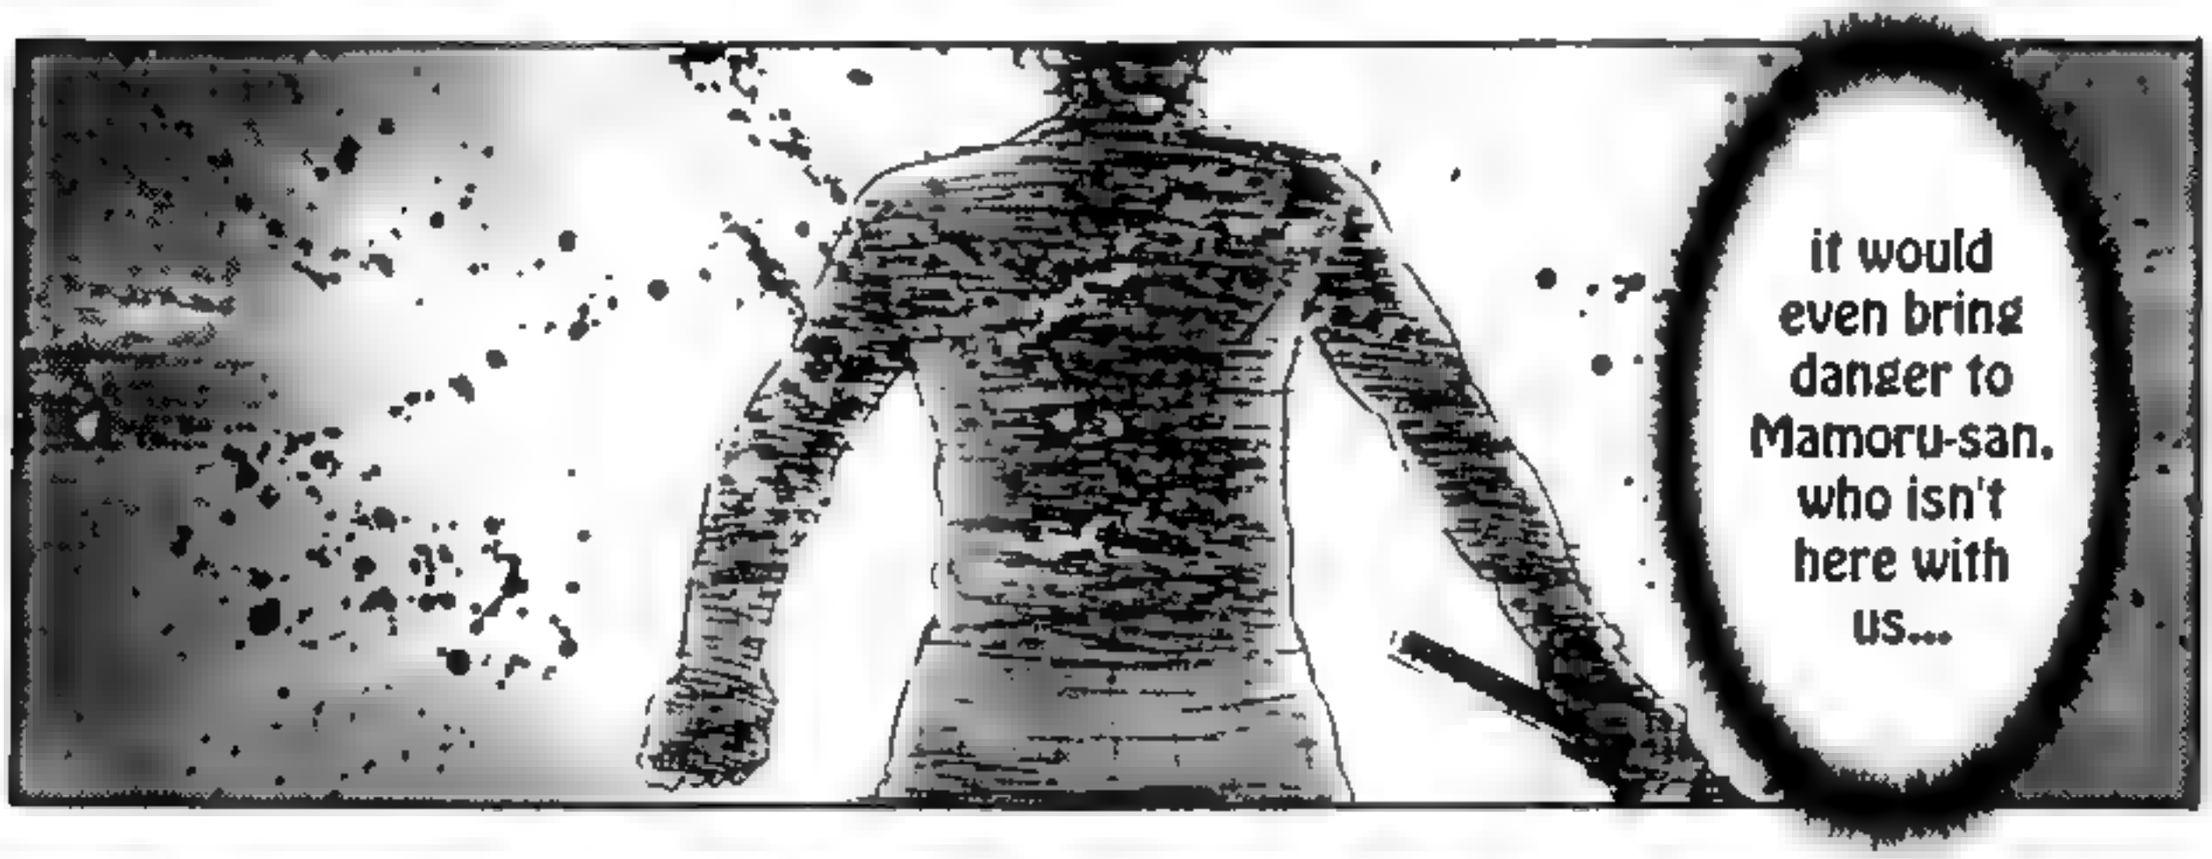
If I had three months to prepare I could make it so that every single building turns to dust

So? What'cha think?!

Clearly

...Is this alright?

But if I stop now, it wouldn't just be everyone here.
If I push them in our current state, I'd be endangering everyone.



it would even bring danger to Mamoru-san, who isn't here with us...

What if this move is a mistake..?

Commence!

Okay.

...It's exactly because we're lacking that losing even a single person's strength would be major for us, though...

Well... Maybe I'll go along with his stupidity for now.

We've lacked people since the beginning, so losing another now ain't a big difference, yo!

...
Enh
...

Really?

Yean, yeah! Let's quickly finish this and have another meal!

Next, I'll cook you something I learned from the mission I had in Pakistan!

Isn't your specialty just eating?

I think so?

You've cooked before?!

Of course! What do you think I am?!

...
What ..?!

Hm? What is it?

I WISH TO SEND A MESSAGE TO HIJIKATA MAMORU

ブオオオ

...With Haruka's foresight, there's no way she doesn't already know of this man's betrayal...

...I Knew it.

THEY'RE TIMING IT SO THAT THERE'S NO WAY YOU CAN MAKE IT IN TIME. SO I WISH TO TELL YOU TO PLEASE REMAIN SILENT AND WATCH OUR FIGHT

FROM HERE ON OUT, MY TEAM WILL ASSAULT DANTE 313

That is all.

!?

They intend to measure Zas'd Turus's abilities...

...by beating us to the chase.

...All this bullshit... even though she's a little girl...

What're you talking about?!

Eh..?!

Why?! What for?!

She told me before she left

Fucker then what are you planning to do?!

!?

Don't worry about us Please follow your own feelings

Being told something like that by a little girl

That was what she said

Somebody who could abandon her after that isn't a real man you know?

You know who they'll be up against, and yet you're speaking with such conceit?!

Simply speaking, do you think you can save this country if you can't even save one little girl?

...Ugh-

I UNDERSTAND. THEN. PLEASE

!?

..I CAN GUESS AS TO WHO'LL BE THERE...

WELL. GIVEN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, YOU HAVE NO CHOICE BUT TO LET ME OFF. YOU KNOW.

H- Hey wait! After all that-

N'SINH. RELEASE HIM AND GIVE HIM BACK HIS WEAPONS.

I'm borrowing the Jeep too.

T-THAT'S...

With your abilities, it'll be easy capturing him again.

UGH..!

ガチャ

I'LL BE SENDING CZIBOR NEARBY TO YOU SOON

Just do whatever you want..!!

ブオオオオ

At that time, let's settle this again.

I ain't gonna fall for the same trick again!

Oh yeah. You really gave me a beating earlier.

Once I've finished my business, I'll return to Trump.

What was that about?!

You talk too much!

From here on out, they intend to commence battle at the place Zasid Turus is heading to.

...ARE YOU... ...SERIOUS?!

YOU SHOULD CONSIDER THAT ZASID MAY PARTICIPATE AS WELL.

Wha-

However, our arrival's estimated at eight hours from now.

UP TO YOU.

After Czibor arrives, can I go on a little sightseeing?

Got it, yo.

I'm against fighting that man, but...

If I leave things like this, you will definitely... stand before Zasid Turus.

If Mamoru-san fights him, he'll definitely be killed.

At least, in our current completely unprepared state...

Until I can bring about a situation where I can completely interfere with them.

If I don't support him as much as possible-

So please prepare for the worst!

We're all resolved for more than just receiving the welfare

...But, this is odd...

W-What the!! They've already broken in this far!?

That's why I said the enemy this time far exceeds our expectations!

Under attack

Intruder

I didn't expect them to maintain this degree of military strength.

Don't trust it!

This is a false alarm!

Do you seriously think they could penetrate our defences and create a false alarm so easily?!

Bullshit! We're using TPC and Galboa's latest defence network!

Disregard that order!

I'm taking command from here!

Due to a sensor malfunction, report back with a thorough visual report!

Notify each defence unit!

Right now, we cannot afford to lose a third opportunity due to your impaired judgement!

Are you sure about that?! I've already been outwitted twice!

I am... assuming the worst case scenario!

...What are you two doing in this situation...

I mean you, Misalt kiddo!

Whatever it is, I would be worried if someone freely passed around orders for a defensive position!

If I had complained, my partner would've been different!

Watching this place is the job Father forced me to have!

Oh..? You've got something against me?!

You're just some damn punk who can't even abide by the rules!

Ah..?!

...The two of you...

...since when were you permitted to show such unsightly behaviour before my eyes?

You two youngsters, you've grown fairly impudent haven't you?

However, that makes no sense!

No matter how accurate her foresight is,

If it were my sons, they would be led by the nose, but...

Your Excellency?! What is the matter?!

This is just as amusing!

Wonderful.

I will not permit any interference to Dante 313. No matter by whom!

...A woman...

Everyone, prepare to evacuate!

Zasid has appeared!!

Idiot! You think you can take him on alone?!

You run too!!

No...

I'll show you that I can get in at least one hit...

DON'T FUCK WITH ME..!!

However, I take it easy on women.

I'll give you the choice of surrendering obediently or dying painlessly.

You can't kill me with a blunt instrument.

It's a foolishly hopeless attempt.

……

You can't touch me that way.

That's too slow.

Actually, I'm confident that it's impossible for humans. I can assure you of that.

Got it

Simply put, if you use the contact art we've devised this time, in theory even that Mamoru won't be able to dodge it

For human beings, besides using two arms and standing or walking on two legs, no matter the opponent the speed at which they can move and their reaction times both have limits.

Surprise attacks can only succeed once

But that's only for the first move through

Eh?

Timing

a killing blow

You must time a killing blow without even the slightest oversight

If your plan is realized even once skilled opponents will regard it as nothing more than a common technique from then on whether you can time it and whether you can follow through with it

That's right Your chances of winning depend upon whether you can realize the timing needed to execute the technique

Pole Mode!

Now!

She hit him!

...No way.

... How ..?!

Wonderful... A transformation technique via contact.

...The average human being wouldn't be able to dodge it.

It's been a while since anyone has made contact with me in close combat...

KUH-

KUH

That pisses me off, but he's right. Just... He somehow managed to evaluate everything at that very instant and then blocked my attack head-on...

He's a fucking demon..!!

Surrender? Or death?

Well now, decide!

...Very well... I shall finish you in an instant so you'll feel no pain.

.....

If Hijikata is the "Demonic Swordsman." then he is the "Demon of War!" ...We don't stand a chance!

This is no joke! This dude... I call foul! How could he seriously be our foe?!

...Next one up..?

It's time for the star player to appear!

This time, I believe you'll accept my challenge!

...Very well... However...

...I don't understand... If Misalt and the others are doing a sortie, I'd expect that the bulk of their forces wouldn't have the flexibility to be able to come here.

Just what are they up to?!

.....

...Because of this bastard...

!?

What the?!

7"

Hey! There's an intruder! Dispatch a squad here!

An intruder?!

The relatively important location in this area is...

Where are you going?!

That's... the Data Room!

You think he's inside?

ガチャ

Who's there?!

How did you break through our defences?!

This man... What's he looking at?!

"Defences?"
I appreciate your carelessness though. They weren't even being used!

What'd you say?!

They were probably... lifted when the bogus security alert was injected.

Thanks to that, I could browse as much as I wanted!

Now that I've caught your attention...

I should talk about why I haven't been in the best mood lately.

Most of you don't know yet, but I'm forced to stay home everyday in order to take care of my severely ill mother. She's been ill for over 15 years, which is basically most of my life.

Recently, her medical expenses have been piling up and our household income (primarily rental income) isn't enough (after food and utility costs) to cover them.

I hate talking about this, but as much as I have an undying passion for translating, I can't exactly thrive on thin air...

That's why, if you can help a poor soul, I'd be sincerely thankful if you could donate to support my livelihood. Any amount helps. I have no need for the money myself, so all of the proceeds will go straight towards my mother's medical expenses.

To donate, please visit our website at KireiCake.com.

Thank you for taking the time to read this, and enjoy your release.

If you have free time, I would love to have people to chat with. You can find me in #cake @ IRC.IRCHighway.net.

Mother-fucker... Are you Jesus?!

I quickly changed my plans and helped myself to browsing the important classified secrets instead!

But then during the commotion,

I... already examined this place four days ago, so I could attack it!

My purpose is the destruction of the TPC. I have no interest in Zasid or his sons.

As long as you don't interrupt, I suppose I could make an exception and let you off!

Jesus? For what purpose?!

Of course...

...

"Students" ..?

That is... if you don't lay a hand my students that should be outside!

I have no interest in street perfor-mances, but...

You can't hit me if you're that covious

...So that's it... If I don't attack while he's off guard, my motions will quickly be read...

Oh..?

Let me correct myself.

Huh?!

Screw you..!!

I'll give you promotional rights of our capital !!!!

Gah-

Can't figure it out, youngster?

It's a weakness peculiar to that type of bulletproof suit.

H... How did this...

Since the design differs so much, it's impossible to absorb it.

and the energy given had a velocity ratio of hypothetically 1:20.

Shock absorption is calculated based on the ability to absorb the instantaneous impact of a bullet of approximately 150g that has surpassed the speed of sound.

However, in our case, the difference in mass was about 700x,

You should curse your inexperience and idiocy.

It's truly sinful to be stupid.

Simply put, the reason you lost is because you relied too much on high-end technology to protect you.

Shit... I didn't know...

Whuff!

Thanks for

ORDINARY JUDGEMENTS WON'T WORK ON HIM!

That was fairly pleasing entertainment.

Detective! Remember, we only want that you are told!

Yes..!

You can bring in the squad awaiting Mitsuki's orders as well! Hurry!

Your squad will take the initiative to arrest the safety force again!

That's because your movements were visible to me.

...That should alert me using the nakedest eye from that distance...?!

If that's true, then—

My eyesight is better than 20/20.

There were people who believed that it was the trigger right before my eyes.

If it were me, enjoying within 1 km...

...is no different than your ordinary firefight.

I could cover that distance in a minute.

Note: This means Zasid moves at 30 km/h or about 18.6 mph.

No way! I could've sworn I was out of the area by 500m!

Your inability to perceive the enemy and your wrong choice of firearm...

...are the reasons you lost!

Even if you're just a little girl, your crime is severe for aiming a muzzle at me.

And the gun you should've chosen should've been an automatic, not a bolt action.

Just in case you were exposed by me and you wanted to fire back quickly within this range!

.....

Who's there?!

That's just silly. Zeal is finished!

You don't deserve my earth!

That's extremely bad taste!

Jesus-

It's no wonder my sons elect, feeling to the fullness

Turns out you were their enemy.

Oh? So you're Jesus?
